WELCOME

Welcome to worship at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church! Today is a difficult passage in the Bible, where Jesus tells the disciples that it's easier for a camel to get through the eye of the needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God. That's a hard word to hear for most of us. And yet, Jesus ends the passage by reminding us that we have a God who doesn't leave us to try and earn our way to heaven on our own. Thank you, God! That's good news if you ask us!

PRAYERS

Merciful God, thank you for caring when we are hurting. We pray for those who have requested prayer today: for Darrin, Al, Ethan, Suzie, Sara, Tosha, Phil, Laura, Cheryl, Barb, Michelle, Darbie, Maggie, Brigi, Sue, Karen, and Leroy. We also lift up all who are experiencing difficulty after natural and human disasters. On our most difficult days, help us to believe, trust, and hold onto the hope that only you can give. In Jesus' name, we pray, Amen.

1. Today's Scripture talks about something impossible (getting a camel through the eye of a needle). Just for fun- what's another example of something impossible?
2. What has to happen for someone to receive an inheritance?
3. Who can get into the kingdom of God on their own? How can any of us get into the kingdom of God?
